

Ray Wilson

Ray Wilson joined Carbon Neutral as CEO in 2010. He has since been involved in the biodiverse reforestation of over 15,000 hectares of degraded and unproductive rural landscapes - funded by the voluntary carbon market.

He previously held State Manager positions in agribusiness banking and as well as a number of agricultural economist roles. He has a Bachelor of Agricultural Economics and Master of Business degrees.